

Michel Sapin

Minister of Finance and Public Accounts

Ministerial Positions

- Since April 2014: Minister of Finance and Public Accounts
- 2012 - 2014: Minister of Labor, Employment, Job Training and Social Dialogue
- 2000 - 2002: Minister of the Civil Service and Administrative Reform
- 1992 - 1993: Minister of Economy and Finance
- 1991 - 1992: Minister Delegate for Justice

Elective Positions

- Since 1995: President of the Community of Communes of Pays d'Argenton-sur-Creuse
- Since 2007: Deputy of Indre
- 2002 - 2012: Mayor of Argenton-sur-Creuse (Indre)
- 2004 - 2007: President of the Centre Regional Council
- 2000 - 2004: Vice President of the Centre Regional Council
- 1998 - 2004: General Counselor of Indre
- 1998 - 2000: President of the Centre Regional Council
- 1995 - 2001: Mayor of Argenton-sur-Creuse (Indre)
- 1992 - 1994: Regional Counselor of Ile-de-France
- 1989 - 1994: City Counselor of Nanterre
- 1988 - 1991: Chairman of the Laws Committee of the National Assembly
- 1986 - 1991: Deputy of Hauts-de-Seine
- 1984 - 1985: Vice President of the National Assembly
- 1981 - 1986: Deputy of Indre

Political Positions

- Member of the Socialist Party (PS) National Bureau
- Since 2007: Socialist Party National Secretary, responsible for economic and fiscal issues
- 2003 - 2008: Official responsible for the Treasury under the First Secretary
- 1998 - 2000: National Secretary for jobs
- 1997 - 1998: National Secretary for economic issues

Other Positions

- 2004 - 2007: President of Avenir Rail
- 1998 - 2000: First vice president of the Association of French Regions (ARF)
- 1994 - 1995: Member of the Council on Monetary Policy of the Bank of France

Career

- Since 1980: Counselor, Administrative Tribunal of Paris

Cursus

- Graduate of the Ecole nationale d'administration, the Ecole normale supérieure (ENS), and the Institut d'études politiques de Paris (IEP)
- Post-graduate degree (DEA) in Geography from the Sorbonne
- Bachelor's Degree in History from the Sorbonne

Publications

L'Etat en mouvement (Bruno Leprince Editeur, 2002)

La France peut s'en sortir, with Jean Arthuis (Editions l'Archipel, 2012)